"There is more love buried here than exists in the whole human race," to quote the Rev. Charles E. (Stoney) Jackson, Jr. He will deliver the Eulogy for Our Beloved Deceased Pets on Animal Memorial Day, Sunday 12 September 1993 at 4 p.m. at the Denver Pet Cemetery.

Two special awards will be presented in honor of living animals on that day. The first, "In Recognition of Canine Service to Humans", will be presented to "Yogi", the bloodhound whose skill and determination led officials to the body of a missing four-year-old this past summer. This award will be accepted by "Yogi" and his handler, Officer Jerry Nichols.

The second award, the "BowWowitzer Journalism Prize", will be presented by "Pirate" Jackson the Political Watchdog to Norm Clarke, sports columnist for the Rocky Mountain News. Norm was the only journalist to note in all the media attention surrounding Pope John Paul's Denver visit that His Holiness brought as his traveling companion his pet dog.

Please join us for this tribute to all of our beloved animal companions the afternoon of Sunday September 12th. To have your pet included in the Rev. Jackson's Eulogy, you may phone him at 344-4941 or send to: "Pirate" Jackson

Animal Memorial Day was instituted by the Rev. Jackson in 1981 when he was Pastor in Residence at Pet Rest Memorial Gardens in Gallatin, Tennessee. This will be the second annual observance at the Denver Pet Cemetery. If you have any further questions, call Bob Bass or Loy Goatley at 288-0177.
